

Press Release

The department of Civil Aviation in RAK has signed a deal of handling ground services with Supreme Food Company International (the largest food company based in Switzerland) in co-operation with E-FRIGHT. Together they will service two flights daily through RAK International Airport.

This agreement was reached Mr. Mohmmad Al Khadher, Manager of Civil Aviation and member of the Economical Committee of the Airport Council (ACI), Abdullah Yaqoobi, General Manager of E-FRIGHT and Keneth Jenkes, General Manager of E-Fright in the UAE with the presence of Vijay Vikram, Executive Manager of E-Fright, Ali Izzat Khalil, E-Fright Sharjah Station and Victor Nilba, Development Manager at Supreme Food.

The manager of civil aviation has assured the capability of all ground operations to receive different types of cargo aircrafts with maxim capacity. The signed deal is to provide all kinds of ground services including refuelling and catering services to a company's cargo aircraft of type ANOTF with capacity of 14 tons for its flights RAK - KABUL - RAK.

Mr. Abdulah Yaqoobi, Gm E-FRIGHT has expressed his happiness about the cooperation with the Civil Aviation of RAK supported by the fast service that's provided by RAK International Airport. Test flights done to examine the quality of ground services revealed that each ground service for a flight took a maximum of 90 minutes.

RAK DCA