

Press Release

No. 01/2006
Date: 22/01/2006

His Highness Engineer Salim bin Sultan Al Qasimi, Chairman of Civil Aviation has honored Mr. Abdullah Mujlad, the security assistant at RAK International Airport on the occasion of successfully completing his service at the airport. This honor came as a gratitude to his commitment and hard working, sincere years at the airport.

His Highness, Head of the Department thanked Mr Abdullah for his working years and for the great job he did, and added that the department is very keen on honoring such people who are sincere, hard working and honest.

The honor of deferent people in deferent departments at the airport is part of the new airport development plans.

RAKDCA