No. 11/2006

Date: 27/6/2006

The Department of Civil Aviation had an honoring ceremony for the departments that are operating within the airport, which included the airport police, the immigration department, airport customs and airport security. The honoring ceremony was hosted by His Highness Sheikh Salim bin Sultan Al Qasimi, Chairman of the Department of Civil Aviation, Vice President of RAK Aviation and member of the General Department of Civil Aviation in the UAE with Mr. Mohammad Khodor, Manager of Civil Aviation and member of the Economical Committee of the International Airport Council.

The honoring ceremony was held in gratitude for the hard working personnel and workers at the airport who contributed and dedicated their time and effort to develop the RAK International Airport. The ceremony was also an encouragement to all workers to continue their dedicated efforts and hard work.

His Highness had thanked all the employees for their commitment and dedication by expressing that the Department of Civil Aviation at RAK feels privileged to honor such employees as an appreciation of their services and an encouragement to keep serving the organisation like they did. "Supporting the employee who gives his best to the job entitles him to become the ideal example for others to follow deliver their best", His Highness added.

"The honoring of deferent people in deferent departments at the airport encourages everyone to work in unison towards the development of the airport", concluded His Highness.
